

SLGS NEWSLETTER

April 2018 - January 2019

Year 2018 had been really a lively year for the Sri Lankan Graduates' Society of the University of Melbourne. The SLGS committee engaged in diverse range of activities which helped enhancing several aspects in graduate life including making new friends, reuniting, strengthening bond of friendship as well as soothing the peace in mind.

Past Events

Sinhala and Tamil New Year 2018

Can someone write something for this?

read more >>

Spring Vibes '18

SprinVibes 2018 has been successfully held in Kensington Townhall on Saturday 3rd of November 2018 with attendance more

Vesak Function

A Dhamma talk on “Harmony in a disconnected world” by Ven. Ajahn Kalyano, along with an alms-giving food stall (Dansala) was successfully held on 11 th May 2018 at the University of Melbourne premises. This Vesak event was jointly organized by the SLGS and The Melbourne University Buddhist Studies Society.

read more >>

Welcome program

A new student welcome program was organized by the society with the intention of bracing up new students in their starting of the postgraduate life and settling in Melbourne. A free lunch for networking with current SLGS members and assigning a helping buddy are main features of this program.

Sports Competition

Someone can write something for this as well

Sponsors

Main Sponser for Spring Vibes

Sponser for Spring Vibes

Sponser for Spring Vibes

Subscribe

Past Issues

Translate ▼

view this email in your browser

Copyright © 2020 Sri Lankan Graduates' Society - The University of Melbourne, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

